

CPA Dr. Joshua Aroni Ph.D -
Candidate for the Position of Treasurer – KRU March 2016

Biography

CPA Dr. Joshua Aroni is married with 3 sons, two already in college (one plays rugby for Impala RFC), while the youngest is in high school. He is an Accountant, Forensics Investigator, and Financial Analyst. He holds Ph.D in Business Administration – Finance (Jkuat), and is a Professional - CPA (K), CPS (K), CFIP, CIFA, ACIRB.

Biography Cont.

- CPA Dr. Aroni has extensive experience in finance, financial Modeling, forensic investigations and Investment evaluation.
- Has worked in the manufacturing and energy sectors in the past 2½ decades. Currently - a Financial Consultant

Rugby Exposure

- Played for MSC
- Former Captain MSC
- Currently Treasurer MSC and Official Coast Rugby Sub Union
- Participated in Planning Committee for CAR 7s held at MSC
- Participates in Driftwood 7s committee
- Supports in fund sourcing for MSC

Overview of Issue

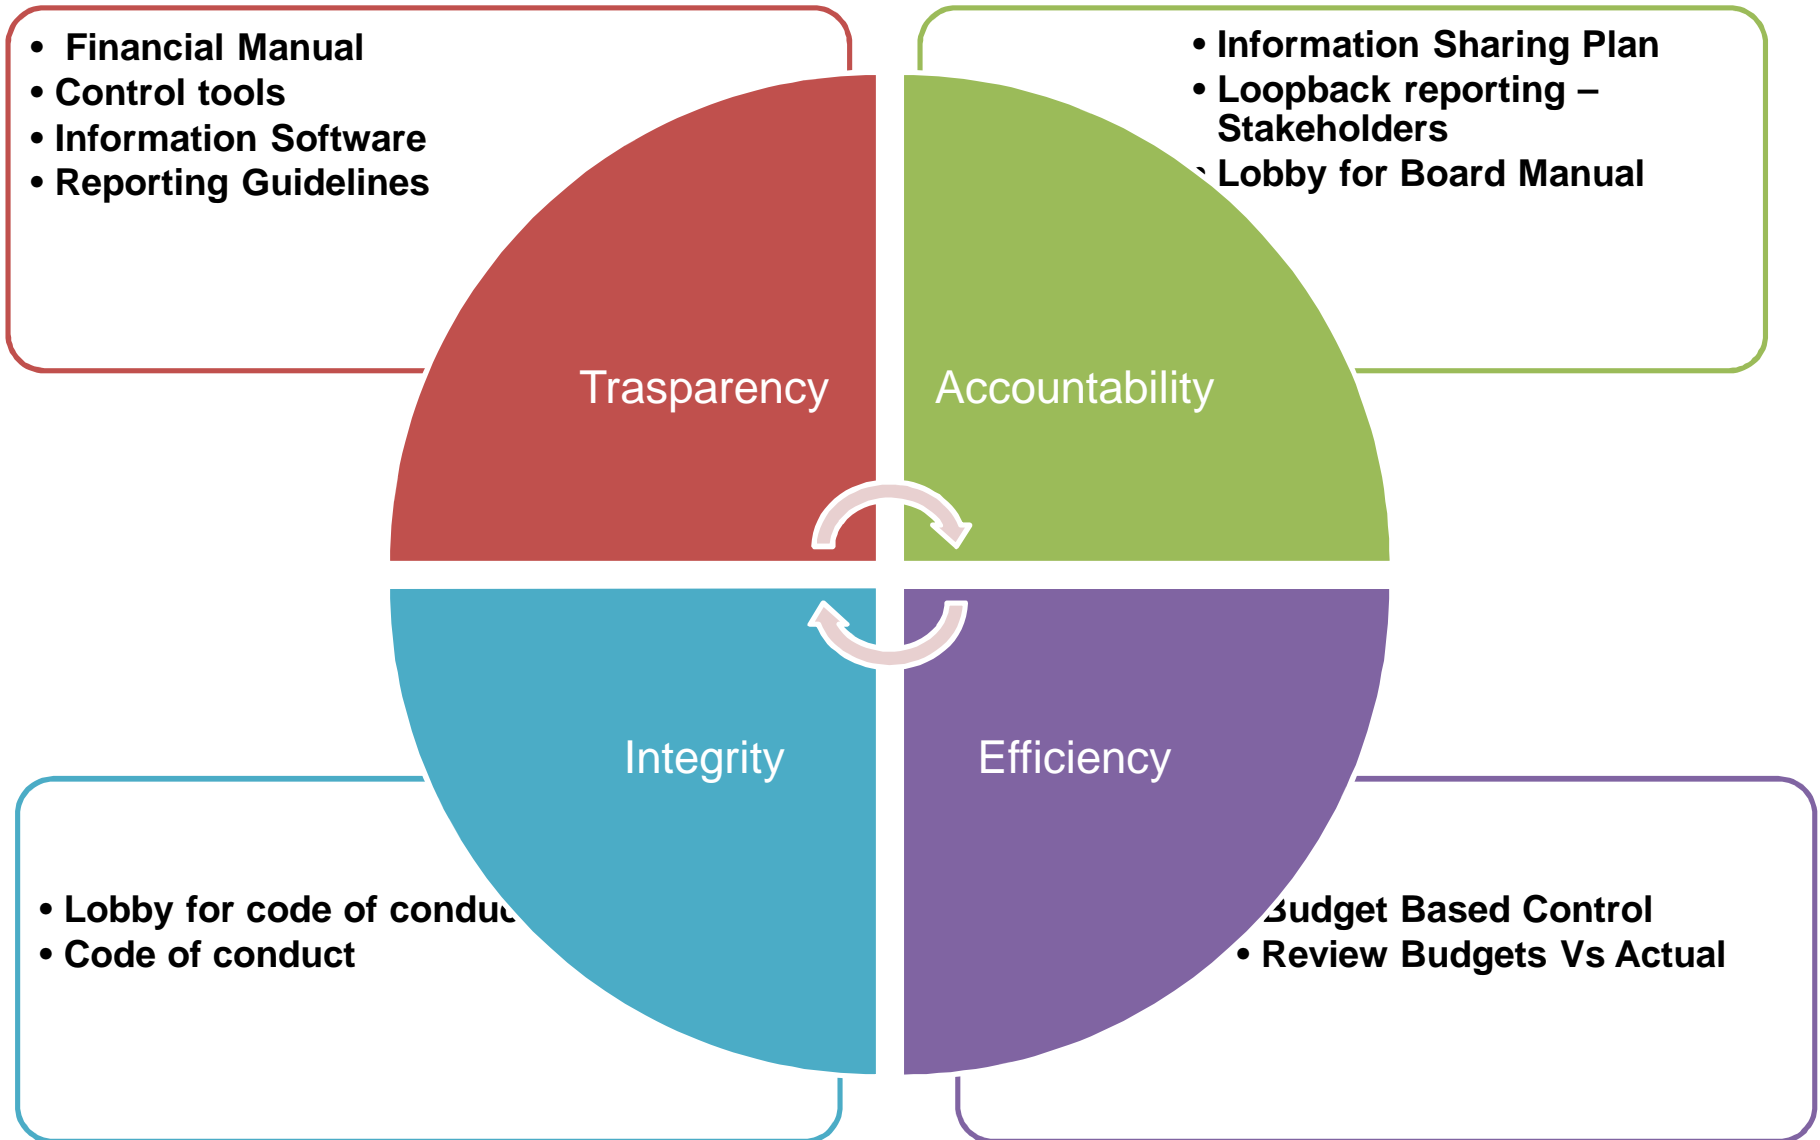

- In CPA Dr. Aroni's perception, the key task facing our Rugby institution is to rebuilt stakeholders confidence, and create a platform to attract stable revenue streams to support development activities and sustainability of the game.
- Immediate goal will be to strengthen accountability and transparency to ensure resources availed are applied to the best interest of the Rugby Sport

Proposed Involvement

Four Thematic Areas Identified

Quantifiable Support Activities

Execution of Plan

➤ KRU Secretariat

➤ Board to oversee Execution

Roadmap to success

- Strong team work, and clear role play at Board Level
- Functional Sovereign and Empowered Secretariat
- Continuous evaluation of objectives and progress review

Expected Outcomes

- Stakeholder confidence
- Increased Revenue
- More support for development activities

Why elect CPA Dr. Aroni

- To provide technical advisory support in the finance function
- Operationalize Control Systems
- Facilitate Best Financial practices & Processes
- To lobby for constitution review